4. Presentation-Santa Rosa Chamber of Commerce on Models of Employer Sponsored Care Discussion

Ananda Sweet presented a presentation discussing the different models of Employer Sponsored Care and the benefits. The presentation provided research regarding the importance of childcare and receiving early quality care for baby's brain development. Also, the discussion provided lessons learned and one of the main lessons learned was building relationships within the community. The PowerPoint Presentation will be sent to Sheri Noble to share with the Council.

5. Retreat Discussion

- Review event with Outcomes

Sheri provided info from Kathy Gallino. Questions came up about the screening of No Small Matter by council members and where R&R was at with this. Bronwyn provided an update that this topic has been put on hold due to the current pandemic. She also explained that R&R have the rights to the screening.

6. Children's Fair Discussion

- Review event with Outcomes

The event started off slow, but then one afternoon it picked up and we ended up having to start a wait list because we had more families wanting to register than we had supplies. For those that worked the event said that the fair went well and had a good outcome. There were a couple of sites that had a supply of bags and are in the process of being picked up by families that were on the wait list. The business that participated in the event were grateful that the funds were able to be utilized.

7. Council Membership

- Renewed Membership

Alissa Bain is renewing her membership.

Kristi LeRette is renewing her membership.

Teri Lane will not be continuing membership, but will join future CCCC meetings as a guest. We thank Teri for her years as a CCCC member.

Election of Officers

It was motioned and approved that an email will go out to potential nominees to discuss roles and expectations and will be brought forth at the November meeting. A suggestion was made that we should reach out to Chamber of Commerce to recruit a member.
